SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

**UPDATE****

Placer County Sheriff's investigators located dental records for the person they believed to be in the burned vehicle. The records were provided to a forensic odontologist who was able to positively identify the human remains. The odontologist's findings confirmed the decedent as being Michael Tyler McBride, the 40-year-old boyfriend of the suspected murder victim, Julie Ann Lacke.

Ms. Lacke and Michael McBride lived together on Pioneer Way in Tahoe City at the time of the incident. The exact cause of death for both decedents remains pending while coroner's officials await the results of toxicology reports. Evidence continues to indicate that McBride murdered Lacke during a tragic case of domestic violence and subsequently took his own life by setting the vehicle he sat in on fire.
